

FRAMING AVALON BEACH

look • reflect • share

This public art exhibition brings together the 'then' and 'now' of Avalon Beach. Sixteen sites form a community trail to follow that takes you back in time while being right in the heart of our special place, inviting you to look at, reflect on and share what makes Avalon Beach unique.

At each site, look through the frame to see in real life, a current local vista, then reflect on the historic photo to picture what was there in bygone days.

Framing Avalon Beach:
look, reflect, share
is an Avalon Beach
Centenary event
